Dear Sir;

On January 27th of this year we resubmitted to you as an addition to our product line the name Lakewood, to represent a new series of travel trailers to be manufactured by Marauder. Since that time we have learned that another manufacturer who had used the name Lakewood but had retired it, has reinstated it for their 1988 product line. This has only recently been brought to our attention and would present a conflict of interest since both products are so similar. Therefore, at this time we would like to resubmit the names Sunburst and Romeaire along with our names of Alpine and Americana for our series. These names were used in last years product line and are names which we hold the patent to.

We hope there will be no problems with these two names and are proposing our VIN be accepted as described on the attached sheet.

We trust that this will be satisfactory and await your earliest response of acceptance.

Sincerely,

Craig Craft
